

TESTIMONY IS CLOSED.

Arguments in the Gisborn-Marion Suit to Begin Today.

BACON CASES CONTINUED

NOW SET FOR HEARING ON MON-DAY, JULY 27.Justice Harvey renders an important decision in regard to the Fish and Game Law With Special Reference to Trout-General News and Doling in the Courts.

The testimony in the big mining suit of Matthew T. Gisborn et al. against the Marion Mining company, was closed at 3:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The case opened on Wednesday, June 24, and seventeen full days were occupied in examining the twenty-eight witnesses on both sides of the case. The arguments will occupy several days, and his honor intends going to Mercur to examine the premises, so that it will be a few days yet before it is finally submitted.

Yesterday the examination of John L. Flack for the plaintiff in rebuttal was concluded and on the same side Ben Johnson, John Green, Leandro Steele and Matt T. Gisborn were examined, who located the point of discovery at the southeast end of the Marion claim.

Matthew T. Gisborn, examined by Mr. Booth, said the work on the incline near the Carrie Steele workings was done six or eight years prior to his becoming interested in the property in 1883. Witness said he located the West Geyser in June, 1880, and the Florence No. 3 in January, 1889.

"Did you not swear in the land office when you applied for patent to the West Geyser and the Florence No. 3 that you made this incline for the purpose of developing these two claims, and did you not procure two witnesses to swear so also?" asked Mr. Dickson in cross-examination.

The question was objected to, but it was allowed and witness answered that he had not.

This closed the testimony, and after some talk between counsel, it was arranged that the arguments be not limited. The impression, however, was that the arguments would be made in three days, and it was a question whether his honor would visit the premises before or after the arguments. Without deciding this matter, court adjourned till this morning, when it is likely the arguments will be begun.

BACON CASES GO OVER.

Now Set For Hearing on Monday,
July 27.

The cases against J. H. Bacon, H. M. Bacon, W. B. Holland and F. B. Holland, proprietors and officers of the Bank of Salt Lake, came up in Justice Harvey's court at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, but by agreement of counsel on both sides the hearing was postponed until Monday, July 27, at 10 a. m., with the understanding that no further postponement be asked for by either side. The charge is receiving deposits when they knew the bank was insolvent.

A FISH CASE.

Important Decision Rendered by Justice Harvey Yesterday.

Justice Harvey yesterday rendered judgment in the case of J. C. Castleline of the Pacific Express company, charged with having trout in his possession before July 15, the date on which it becomes lawful to catch trout in Utah waters. The defense was that the trout in question were brought from Montana and were not caught in Utah waters, and that no law in regard to fish and game in this state had been broken.

His honor, however, found the defendant guilty under the terms of section 12, chapter 36 of the laws of Utah, which reads as follows:

"It shall be unlawful for any person to sell, kill, destroy or have in his possession at any time any fish except carp, chub, sunfish or silverfish, less than eight inches long, or any fish whatever that is taken unlawfully; or to take, kill, destroy or have in his possession any trout or bass whatever at any time after the 14th day of January and before the 15th day of July following."

This was intended as a test case to settle the point as to whether trout might be brought from other states in the close season, and Assistant County Attorney Nye and Judge McDowell, the latter representing the fish and game association, said they would be satisfied with a nominal penalty, and his honor therefore made the fine $5 and costs.

Attorney P. L. Williams, on behalf of the defendant, said that while he did not dispute the correctness of his honor's judgment, he would probably take an appeal to the district court, and thence to the state supreme court, in order to have an authoritative ruling on the point from the highest authority in the state.

Court Miscellaneous.

Judge Ritchie tomorrow will be occupied in hearing the arguments in the Gisborn vs. Marion case, and will therefore not be able to take up the motions and short cases which usually come up on Saturdays. He will, however, open court at 9 a. m., so as to dispose of probate matters and the motions which have already been set for that day.

Henry H. Harris has entered suit against Thomas C. Patten et al. to recover $6,200 and interest on three promissory notes secured by mortgages.

A warrant was yesterday issued from Justice Sells for the arrest of D. B. Britton on the charge of unlawfully taking five head of cattle from Pound-keeper Howard at Big Cottonwood.

Warrants were issued by Justice Sells for the arrest of Perry F. Anson, P. J. Anson, Francis Lyon and Joanne Anson on the charge of disturbing the peace of William Marlinburg.

FRANK ANYWAY.

The advertisements of A. Schilling & Co., tea merchants of San Francisco, are of a sort new to this part of the country. In fact, we do not remember ever to have seen anywhere charges so specific and so open.

They say that most of the Japan tea sold in the United States is colored and weighted, and that his coloring is usually poisonous.

If they are right, we ought to be glad to know it; if they are wrong, they deserve to be shown up.

THE PROSTRATING SHOCKS

Of malarial fever are not to be counted by quinine and any degree of certainty, or for any length of time. The eradication and prevention of diseases of a miasmatic type are, however, ascertained possibilities. Long experience has shown that there is infinitely more preventive efficacy in the fine botanic medicine, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, than in the alkaloids, drugs and poisons which were formerly the only recognized means of removing and anticipating attacks of fever and ague and bilious remittent. When the system has been depleted by periodically recurring paroxysms, this agreeable restorative renews the fund of energy, and is not only a positive specific, but repairs the damage to the general health inflicted by all febrile complaints partaking of the malarial character.

CONFLICTING TESTIMONY.

NORDSTROM EMPHATICALLY DE-
NIES ANNA HELBERG'S CHARGES.The Woman is Corroborated by Her Children, However—Hearing Continued Until Today.

The preliminary hearing of Carl O. Nordstrom, who, it is alleged, forced an entrance to Mrs. Anna Helberg's house for the purpose of ravishing her. The case proved to be somewhat complicated. It was at first thought of trying Nordstrom on a charge of assault to commit rape, but yesterday the charge of burglary with intent to commit rape was substituted. Graham H. Putnam represented the defendant and Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Houghton appeared for the state.

Mrs. Helberg is a Scandinavian woman, probably 22 years of age. She is not well versed in the English language, but sufficiently so to make herself understood. Owing to the notoriety the scandal would give her name, she was almost distracted with grief and had no one to whom she could confide.

Mrs. Helberg said she had three children, the oldest being 3 years of age. To gain a living she took in washing and did various other kinds of work such as her time outside of taking care of the children would permit.

Coming down to the more particular point at issue, she stated that she had met Nordstrom a few times and had what might be termed a speaking acquaintance with him. She had occasion to move once and he assisted her.

"One night about two weeks ago, she was awakened by a man coming in and saying, 'Mrs. Nordstrom.' By force, Mrs. Helberg said, he accomplished his purpose. She did not give publicity to this occurrence at the time, fearing the scandal it would bring down upon her.

Last Monday night about 11 o'clock Nordstrom returned to the house and rapped at the front door. She refused to open it and he forced it open. She and the children's screams, however, frightened him away this time, but before going he stated the object of his coming, his designs being the same as on the previous occasion. At this time she notified the police about it and afterwards swore to the complaint.

Victor, a bright little lad of 5 years, corroborated his mother and positively stated that Nordstrom was the man who entered the house and assaulted his mother.

Carl T. Youngberg, John C. Ensign, Louis Haben, Hugo Hofer and Araxa Nordstrom were put on the stand by the defense to testify about Nordstrom's good character and chastity, but it developed that they knew very little about him. Youngberg said he saw him every day at Youngberg's saloon on Second South street and the boys considered him a good fellow.

The defendant then took the stand. He is a man 50 years of age, of powerful build.

Nordstrom smiled when put on the stand and kept up a cheerful conversation all the time. "I am what you call a handy fellow—do a little of anything," he began, in reply to Attorney Harrington's question. He said he had known Mrs. Helberg about four years, but the acquaintance had not been very intimate. Regarding last Monday night he said he went to the house about 10 o'clock to solicit work for Dr. Baxter, a dentist. They sat and talked awhile and witness went away. She had remarked to him about having to get up early in the morning and so, to accommodate her, he returned about 6 o'clock the following morning and rapped at her bedroom window. He also had another purpose in calling, and he tried to borrow money. Nordstrom denied very emphatically that he had ever assaulted the woman and said she had sworn falsely in saying anything different.

Further testimony developed the fact that Nordstrom was at one time instructor of the "Liederkantz," the German singing society of this city. He also gives instruction on the violin. Attorney Putnam raised a legal question and pending its settlement the case was continued until 2 o'clock today.

To trace up the system after "La Grippe," pneumonia, fevers, and other prostrating acute diseases; to build up needed flesh and strength, and to re-establish the system, the best thing in the world is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It promotes all the bodily functions, rouses every organ into healthy action, purifies and enriches the blood, and through it cleanses, repairs, and invigorates the entire system. For the most stubborn scrofulous, skin or scalp diseases, dyspepsia, biliousness and kindred ailments, the "Discovery" is unequalled as a remedy.

AFFAIRS OF THE STATE.

Auditor Richards Wants an Opinion Regarding Fees.

AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.

TWENTY-TWO THOUSAND DOLLARS
FOR THAT INSTITUTION.A Table Showing the Salary and Milage of State Officers Sent to the Treasurer Yesterday—The Board of Equalization.

State Auditor Richards sent the following letter to the attorney general yesterday asking his opinion regarding the fees received at his office since January 4, 1896:

Salt Lake City, July 16, 1896.
Hon. A. C. Bishop, Attorney General,
State of Utah:

Dear Sir—Before entering upon my duties in the collection of money arising from fees, I would respectfully solicit an opinion from you, giving the true status of the question of fees that should be covered into the state treasury from and after January 4, 1896. Your immediate response will be duly appreciated by yours truly.

MORGAN RICHARDS,
State Auditor.

Attorney General Bishop yesterday sent the following communication to State Treasurer Chipman in relation to the state's share, amounting to $22,000, of the congressional appropriation to colleges for agricultural and mechanical arts:

Dear Sir—I herewith enclose you a communication from Samuel Blackwell, auditor in the treasury department at Washington, D. C., dated June 27, 1896, advising you that an account had been stated by that office in your favor as state treasurer for $22,000, being an account of "colleges for agricultural and mechanical arts," and that a warrant for the same would reach you in due course of official business.

Pursuant to your request to be informed what course you should pursue in reference to this matter, I beg to advise you as follows: Upon the proper order of the trustees of the Agricultural college, requesting you to do so, it will be your duty, under the act of congress of August, 1890, to turn the same over to the treasurer of the said institution, the order of the trustees of which college, however, is not in your possession, which you will file of record in your office.

In my opinion the proper method to be observed in reference to this matter would be to make inquiry of the trustees of the "Agricultural college special fund," and upon turning it over to the treasurer, as aforesaid, charge the said amount, thus balancing the transaction.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully yours,
A. C. BISHOP,
Attorney General.

CALIFORNIA POPULISTS.

A Couple of Them Prepare a Platform.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 16.—E. M. Wardall, chairman of the Populist state central committee of California, and J. Taylor Rogers, Mayor Sutor's secretary, have prepared a platform which it is proposed to present to the national Populist convention to be held at St. Louis next week. The financial plank follows:

"We demand a national money, issued directly by the general government only, as a full legal tender for all debts, issued without the agency of any private corporation or bank, and in circulating volume subject to law and responsive to our needs and speedily to be increased to $50 per capita for the entire people."

"Such money shall consist of gold, silver and paper, each dollar endowed with the same function, imparted solely by the stamp thereon, and not dependent for its money value upon the price of the material used. Each dollar shall be interchangeable with but not redeemable in the other and shall be denominated respectively gold, silver or paper money—all national debts being payable in either at the option of the government."

As the United States is a free and powerful nation and the financial and industrial liberty of its citizens should be independent of the action of any other government, we demand the free and unlimited coinage of gold and silver by the United States at their present legal ratio or 16 to 1, without reference to the course of any foreign nation.

"We demand that all national banks be abolished and in lieu of them that the government establish a postal bank in each city, town and village of the United States containing a population of 1,000 or more."

The platform also declares for the recognition of Cuba and against the refunding of the Pacific railroad debts.

SERIOUS CHARGES.

They Are Made Against a Railway
Mail Superintendent By a Discharged Employee.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 16.—John F. Lewis, who was dismissed from the railway mail service on June 1, after serving six years as stenographer in the superintendent's office, has filed sensational charges against Superintendent Samuel Flint with the postmaster general of Washington. Lewis asserts that he was discharged because he testified against Flint a year ago, when Clerk F. E. Coyer, of Los Angeles, preferred charges of drunkenness and favoritism against his chief.

He charges also that A. C. Mahone, E. C. Murray, J. E. Mandeville, of Sacramento, and E. B. Spears, all clerks who have been dismissed within the past twelve months, were dismissed for the same reason.

The general charges which Lewis has preferred against Superintendent Flint allege drunkenness, the use of vulgar language, direct and intentional violation of department orders in allowing money lenders to transact business through the main office of the eighth division, lack of discipline, favoritism, political and religious discrimination and gambling.

PUBLIC LAND SURVEYS.

ABOUT $20,000 TO BE EXPENDED cultural and Grazing Land in the Line of Settlement.

Under the appropriation for surveys of public lands recently made by congress the United States surveyor general for Utah will have $20,000 or more at his disposal for surveys of agricultural and grazing land within the state, and in order that this money may be used to the best advantage and surveys made where the greatest benefit may result to section 16 of school lands, the surveyor general has made to him by those parties having land which they desire to have surveyed, and should write to the United States surveyor general for the district of Utah, at Salt Lake City, stating:

First—As near as possible by township and range where their land is situated. Second—How long they have been in possession of it.

The extent and value of their improvements. The same should be signed and sworn to before a justice of the peace, or a notary public, and addressed to the United States surveyor general, Salt Lake City, Utah.

The surveyor general would also like to be informed of the location as to township and range of any agricultural or grazing land not yet settled upon, which is in the line of settlement, and would be likely to be settled upon if same were surveyed.

VENEZUELA.

United States and Great Britain
Reach an Agreement.

NEW YORK, July 16.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: The United States and Great Britain have agreed upon July 18 as the date for the simultaneous publication of the correspondence in regard to the recent negotiations for an international arbitration treaty, with particular reference to the Venezuelan controversy.

The preparation of this correspondence for publication is the immediate duty of Secretary Olney, and his presence here during the hot weather. He is in daily conference with Sir Julian Pauncefote, who has also been endeavoring to delay his departure for a cooler climate on account of the negotiations on this subject.

The correspondence will be laid before the British parliament on the date mentioned, and will be furnished to the press by Secretary Olney on the same date. While the correspondence will show that there are still important points of difference between the two countries, it also appears that there has been decided progress toward an amicable settlement.

CHICAGO, July 16.—Chicago expects to have a tower which will be the highest structure of its kind ever constructed. It is to be called the Seth tower and will be 1,150 feet high and 300 feet square at the base. The tower company is an incorporated one, capitalized at $800,000, having for its president D. R. Proctor, and will rear this lofty skeleton on the site of a vacant lot owned by New York people for which a lease for a term of years has been secured. This enterprise is based on business lines and the projectors of the scheme intend to equip the tower with a theatre, restaurants, search light and telescope while such entertainments as parachute drops and high tight rope performances as well as electrical and pyrotechnical displays will be given.

The tower's tower, its promoters say, will surpass the Eiffel tower in Paris, in point of design, magnitude and appointment, and will contain fourteen elevators as against six in the Eiffel.
